38.1 This Contract will be construed under and governed by THE LAWS OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN.

38.2 USF and the Service Provider shall make every effort to resolve amicably by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with this Contract. In event of failure to resolve the dispute, the dispute shall be referred to Mediator as a precondition to any legal action. The parties shall agree upon the terms for engagement of Mediator within two weeks of the referral. The cost and expenses shall be equally shared by the parties.

38.3 Except as otherwise provided in this Contract, any difference, dispute or question arising out of or with reference to this Contract which cannot be settled amicably shall within thirty (30) days from the date that either party informs the other in writing that such difference, dispute or question exists be referred to arbitration.

38.4 Within thirty [30] days of the aforesaid notice, both parties shall nominate and agree upon a sole arbitrator, preferably retired Judge of High Court or Supreme Court, for commencement of the arbitration proceedings.

38.5 The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure set forth in the Pakistan Arbitration Act, 1940 as amended. The arbitration Tribunal shall have its seat in Islamabad.

38.6 The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.

38.7 The cost of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by both parties.

38.8 In the event of an arbitrator resigning or becoming incapable or unable to act, the party nominating such arbitrator shall be entitled appoint another in the place of the outgoing arbitrator. Proceeding shall continue without recommencing as if such arbitrator had been originally nominated.

27. SERVICE PROVIDER'S DEFAULT

27.1 If the Service Provider neglects to perform the Contract with due diligence and expedition or refuse or neglect to comply with any reasonable orders given to him in writing by USF or any of its authorized representative in connection with the performance of the Contract or contravene the provisions of the contract, USF may give notice in writing to the Service Provider to make good the failure, neglect or contravention complained of.

27.2 Should the Service Provider fail to comply with the said notice within five (05) days from the date of issue of said notice thereof, it shall be lawful for USF forthwith to terminate the Contract by notice in writing to the Service Provider without prejudice to any rights which may have occurred under the Contract to either party prior to such termination.

28. FORCE MAJEURE

28.1 The Service Provider is not liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that, its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the Contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.

28.2 If either party is temporarily rendered unable wholly or in part by Force Majeure to perform its duties or accept performance by the other party under the Contract it is agreed that on such party giving notice with full particulars in writing of such Force Majeure to the other party within seven (07) days after the occurrence of the cause relied on, then the duties of such party as far as they are affected by such Force Majeure shall be suspended during the continuance of any inability so caused but for no longer period and such cause shall as far as possible be removed with all reasonable speed.

28.3 Neither party is responsible for delay caused by Force Majeure. The term of this Contract shall be extended for such period of time as may be necessary to complete the work which might have been accomplished but for such suspension.

28.4 If either party is permanently prevented wholly or in part by Force Majeure for period exceeding 01(one) month from performing or accepting performance, the party concerned has the right to terminate this Contract immediately giving notice with full particulars for such Force Majeure in writing to the other party, and in such event, the other party is entitled to compensation for an amount to be fixed by negotiations and mutual agreement.

28.5 If a Force Majeure situation arises, the Service Provider shall promptly notify USF in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by USF in writing, the Service Provider shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably possible, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

29. TERMINATION OF CONTRACT

Termination of Contract for Default

29.1 USF may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the Service Provider terminate this Contract forthwith in whole or in part.

- a). If the Service Provider fails to deliver any or all of the Services within the time period (s) specified in the Contract or any extension thereof granted by USF.
- b). If the Service Provider fails to perform any other obligation under the contract.
- c). If the Service Provider, in either of the above circumstances does not cure its failure within a period of ten (10) days (or such longer period as USF may authorize in writing) after receipt of the default notice from USF.

29.2 In the event USF terminates the Contract in part, USF may procure, upon such terms and in such a manner as it deems appropriate, Services similar to those undelivered, and the Service Provider is liable to USF for any excess cost for such similar Goods and services. However, the Service Provider shall continue performance of the Contract to the extent not terminated.

30. TERMINATION FOR INSOLVENCY

30.1 USF may at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Service Provider, without compensation to the Service Provider if the Service Provider becomes bankrupt, insolvent enters into winding up whether voluntary or compulsory. Such termination shall not prejudice or affect any other right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue to USF thereafter.

31. LIQUIDATE DAMAGES

31.1 Subject to Clause 28 (Force Majeure), in case of delays in execution of services beyond milestone dates, the Liquidate Damages at the rate of 0.15% of total milestone price per day for each day delayed beyond the final date of milestone completion will be imposed or delays exceeding two (02) weeks beyond the final date, USF may terminate the contract after deduction of the said Liquidate Damages and USF will have the right to en-cash the Performance Guarantee.

31.2 In case of cumulative downtime of the online e-commerce portals for more than one (01) week in a year for which the installment of milestone x is being given, USF shall be entitled to deduct the proportionate amount on per day basis (for days exceeding 07 days of cumulative outage) from the current installment of milestone x. The method of calculation of per-day deduction shall be to divide the yearly installment of milestone x over a period of 365 days

31.3 Any liquidated damages if not paid in cash by Service Provider shall be deducted from the invoice (s) submitted by Service Provider performance security. The imposition of liquidated damages upon the Service Provider and its payment does not absolve the Service

Provider from its obligations to delivery or from any other liabilities or obligations under the Contract.

32. INDEMNIFICATION

32.1The Service Provider shall indemnify and hold harmless USF from and against all losses and all claims, demands, payments, suits, actions, recoveries and judgment of every nature and description made and related cost and expenses brought or recovered against the USF related to the work done under this Contract, by reasons of any act, omission to act or status of liability of Service Provider or its agents or employees. Service Provider agrees to give USF prompt notice of any possible liability.

32.2If the Service Provider is in breach of any obligations under this Contract (or any part of it) to USF or if any other liability is arising (excluding liability for personal injury, death or breach of statutory duty) then the maximum liability of the Service Provider under this contract shall be limited to the Total Contract Price.

33. WAIVER

33.1No delay, neglect or forbearance on the part of either party in enforcing against the other party any term or condition of the Contract shall either be or be deemed to be a waiver or in any way prejudice any right of that party under the Service Provider shall any waiver by either Party of any breach of Contract operate as a waiver of any subsequent or continuing breach of Contract. Any waiver of a Party's rights, powers or remedies under the Contract must be in writing and must be dated and signed by an authorized representative of the Party granting such waiver and must specify the right and the extent to which it is being waived.

34. AMENDMENT

34.1No alteration, waiver or change in any of the terms of this Contract will be effective unless made in writing and duly executed by an authorized officer or representative of each of the Party.

35. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

35.1This Contract together with the attached Annexes contains the entire terms and conditions and constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and cancels and supersedes any previous oral or written agreements, representations or arrangements, express or implied, by the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Contract.

36. SEVERABILITY

- 36.1 If any one or more of the provisions of this Contract should be ruled wholly or partly invalid or unenforceable by a court or other government body of competent jurisdiction, then:
- a. the validity and enforceability of all provisions of this Contract not ruled to be invalid or unenforceable shall be unaffected;
 - b. the effect of the ruling shall be limited to the jurisdiction of the court or other government body making the ruling;
 - c. the provision(s) held wholly or partly invalid or unenforceable shall, if possible, be deemed amended, and the court or other government body is authorized to reform the provision(s), to the minimum extent necessary to render them valid and enforceable in conformity with the Parties intent as manifested herein; and
 - d. if the ruling and/or the controlling principle of law or equity leading to the ruling is subsequently overruled, modified, or amended by legislative, judicial, or administrative action, then the provision(s) in question as originally set forth in this Contract shall be deemed valid and enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by the new controlling principle of law or equity.

37. INDEPENDENT SERVICE PROVIDERS

- 37.1 The Service Provider is and shall remain at all times an independent Service Provider and shall be fully responsible for their own acts or defaults (including those of their employees or agents). Neither the Service Provider is authorized nor their employees, agents or representatives shall at any time attempt to act or act on behalf of USF to bind any other Party in any manner whatsoever to any obligations. Neither the Service Provider nor its employees, agents or representatives shall engage in any acts which may lead any person to believe that such Party is an employee, agent or representative of USF.
- 37.2 Nothing in this Contract shall be deemed to constitute a partnership or other profit sharing arrangement between the Parties.

38. SURVIVAL

- 38.1 All accrued rights of a Party shall survive the expiry or termination of this Contract as shall all Clauses that by their nature are intended to do so, including, without limitation, obligations of Indemnity, Confidentiality and Dispute Resolution.

39. COUNTERPARTS

- 52.1 This Contract may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Parties have caused this Contract to be signed on the Day and Year above written.
